Rest in peace Queen Elizabeth

We thank you for your many years of service.

We held a minute's silence today to remember our Queen and her impressive service over 70 years. The children might have questions about the Queen's death and what happens now— we will do our best to work with you to answer their questions over the coming weeks.

As you are probably aware, we have entered 10 days of National mourning. We might need to adjust our school arrangements as a result —such as the possibility of the school closing on the day of the Queen's funeral.

We await updates from the Government and will let you know as soon as we hear about the implications for schools.

A MESSAGE FROM A PARENT IN OUR SCHOOL

To all parents and carers

Is your child safe on the internet?

Whilst playing Fortnite over the summer, my son was a victim of grooming where he was befriended by another player who he has never met. This boy/man cunningly asked him various questions. My son who is innocent fell into his trap and as a result, the boy/man managed to get email addresses that we use. The boy/man then caused chaos and a lot of upset sending inappropriate and unpleasant emails to unknowing victims.

Please don't let this happen to your family.
