

ALL THE DAYS OF OUR LIVES

Words and Music by Mark and Helen Johnson

1 (Joseph)
How many miles have we travelled today?
How many towns have we seen on the way?
(Mary)
Such a long journey,
Such a long time,
(M and J)
When will we get there? What will we find?
God will look after us, all the days of our lives.

2 (Joseph)
How many people have turned us away?
How many places with nowhere to stay?
(Mary)
Think of the baby,
Think of the time.
(M and J)
Will someone help us? Who will be kind?
God will look after us, all the days of our lives.

Bays.

3 NARRATIVE:
While they were in Bethlehem, the time came for the baby to be born. Mary gave birth to her firstborn, a son. She wrapped him in cloths and placed him in a manger because there was no room for them in the inn. Just as the angel had said to her, they called him Jesus, which means 'Saviour'.

4 How many years have led up to this day?
How many troubles were faced on the way?
All of our waiting
All for this time,
Now in a moment, hope has arrived.
God will look after us, all the days of our lives.

THE GUYS WITH THE CAMELS

From places many miles away.

We're the guys with the shades!
*We've put up with the hassles,
Just to get here today.*

To find the special baby King.
We saw a star so bright,
And we have come to worship Him.

We're carrying amazing gifts.
We saw a star so bright,
We've waited all our lives for this!

IN A STABLE

Words and Music by Mark and Helen Johnson

- 1 In a stable long ago,
In a place so far from home,
There a baby lay whose love would change the world.
And the life that started then,
On that night in Bethlehem,
Would become the greatest story every told.

CHORUS *And the angels sang at His birth,
And His praises rang through the earth,
And the skies were filled with songs of worship,
Singing 'praise and glory to God,
On the earth be peace from above',
For the time had come for us to know Him.*

- 2 Many angels and a star,
Led the people from afar,
To the place where Christ the Saviour had been born.
It was such an awesome sight,
To behold Him there that night,
And to know His love would last for evermore.

CHORUS

- 3 As we turn our minds again
To the shepherds and wise men,
And the stable where our story did begin,
'Though the manger now has gone,
There's a Saviour who lives on,
With an invitation now to worship Him.

CHORUS
