

Write a list of 10 questions that you would like to ask a Roman Centurion who has come to Britain.

Try creating a maths work sheet or number problem for other children using Roman numerals.
Can you make a coded message using Roman Numerals?

Write the words for a Roman centurions marching song that they could sing as they march in training.

The Romans wore 'togas'. With a friend or relative see if you can work out how to make and wear a toga to be a Roman. Let us have a photograph too. Maybe Write down some instructions to tell others how to put on a toga.

Find out about and write a brochure about a Roman building then make a model of a Roman building too.
It does not have to be the same one.

Due to the Easter Performance and this being a short half term this topic and homework will run for the full Spring term You must complete 8 of the homework options. Final hand in will be the last week of term (24.03.23). . But al children are welcome to bring in their work to show the class

Year 4 Spring Term Topic 22/23 The Romans

Make some Roman Honey Cakes. Make Find a recipe by typing 'Roman Honey Cakes' into Google. Make sure you measure the ingredients carefully.
Why not try writing a set of Recipe instructions for the class too.
Find out about other Roman delicacies!

The Roman Empire covered a large part of the world at its height and they travelled by road and sea. Can you design a Roman Galley that floats on water?

The history of the Roman 'Empire' lasted for over 1000 years. Can you write a biography of some famous Romans?

Imagine you are a Roman Centurion who has just arrived in England for the first time. Write a diary entry for his first day or write a letter home to his family telling them what this new world is like.

Design a new helmet or shield for a Roman centurion. Maybe try to make a model too.

Research some of the Roman weapons , make a working model of one and/or write about the history behind it.

Free choices. Try something else. Surprise us with your ideas, ingenuity and Imagination! Art, poems models, writing or anything else you can come up with..