

ST. HELEN'S NEWS

ASSISI
CATHOLIC
TRUST

20th December 2023 <https://www.facebook.com/sthelenswestcliff/>

Our Mission Statement

Respect yourself
Respect everyone in our school community
Respect everyone in our local community
Respect everyone in our global community
But most of all, respect God our Father in Heaven

Senior Leaders Special Mentions

Thank you all so much for all your generous gifts, lovely cards and kind words, we really appreciate your generosity.

We wish you all a very happy and holy Christmas and we look forward to a healthy new year together.

With love and best wishes from
Mrs Mouchel, Mrs Curtis, Mrs Faulkner
and all the staff at St. Helen's School.

LAST DAY TODAY

SCHOOL REOPENS

Thursday 4th January

Please make sure all your lunches are booked.

Thank you.

Happy Christmas

Jesus is born

Mary was going to have a baby. She and Joseph went to a town called Bethlehem. They stayed in an animal shed! Very soon, the baby was born. Mary wrapped him up to keep him warm. Joseph made a soft bed for him in the hay. Mary and Joseph were very happy. They called the baby Jesus.

