Your School Photograph is Ready!

Vancols Photographers are pleased to confirm that the School Photographs are ready to view using the QR code on your proof card.

If you have already scanned the QR code on the Proof and registered you will receive an auto email notification.

If you have not done it yet, don't panic, you can still view by scanning the QR code on your Proof and following the instructions.

If by chance you have not received your Proof or it has been lost you can call Vancols Parent Line on 01206 273711, for class photos you will need the school number. For individual photographs you will need the pupil's admission number from the school database, or see Mrs Felstead on a Monday, Wednesday or Friday in the office and she can give you the codes.

COURAGE

TRUSTWORTHINESS

R Hedgehogs	Muna Johnson-Trustworthiness -Muna has enhanced the class with his cheerful attitude and can always be relied upon to tell the truth.
R Squirrels	William Cope-Courage -he has shown courage in stepping outside his comfort zone and pushing himself to improve his phonics learning by attending phonics groups other than his own, with confidence and enthusiasm.
1 Jellyfish	Hunter Johnson-Courage -Hunter showed great courage at sports day, and has made great choices this week.
1 Starfish	Ollie Heard- Trustworthiness -he can always be trusted to work his hardest in class and enjoys learning so much that he also shares his school learning at home too. He has been enthusiastic for all our topics this year and is an asset to any classroom. He is most definitely ready for year 2.
2 Seahorses	Sarah Stamate-Empathy -when the winners for the long jump was announced at sports day Sarah went over to the children and said well done!
2 Oysters a	Dario Maroto-Solis-Patience - Dario showed patience this week by supporting and encouraging his P.E partner. He showed his enjoyment of working as part of a team and demonstrated how he is kind member of his class.
3 Robins	Phoebe Greewood Kynt – Trustworthiness -for being the true definition of what it means to be trustworthy. Even when we asked the class, lots of them also nominated her. Thank you Phoebe.
3 Seagulls	Jayden Masunga-Courage -he has progressed to coming in and saying good morning and telling us the weather forecast this year, and he has joined in with his fellow class members during morning register time.
4 Fountains	Catherine Mary Abraham-Trustworthiness -Catherine consistently leads by example, taking pride in her work and making a positive contribution to the classroom—not for recognition, but out of a genuine commitment to doing her best and supporting others.
4 Gideon	Enoch Ashinyo-Koudiabo-Courage -he has worked so hard in maths recently, with much more focus. Even when faced with challenges at school, he has had the courage to persevere with his learning. Well done Enoch!
5 Rosa Parks	Angelina Kleszcz-Trustworthiness -she can be relied upon to always make the right choices and do the right thing. She always offers to help any adult at any time.
5 Walter Tull	Emma Mica– Resilience -Emma has proved to be a most resilient worker - she tries her best at all times and works hard to over come obstacles and to gain understanding of our topics and new learning, particularly in maths. She learns by her mistakes and shows true resilience in our class.
6 St. Anthony	Juliet Anyanwu-Odili-Trustworthiness - Juliet has led RE with honesty and trust. She has represented the school on many occasions and led prayer for others.
6 St. Raphael	Tom Stephens-Courage -for contributing far more in class discussions and sharing his wonderful ideas. He is putting his hand up more and more.
SLT award	Johnjon Choat –6R-Service -for supporting and encouraging younger children on Sports Day (Missed from last week)
SLT award	Luke Vata-4F-Resilience -for progressing in his timetables.
MDA award	Catherine Rijo-5WT– Empathy -for showing support to another pupil.
