Values Children

R St John Fisher	Jason Joseph— Service – during his swimming session Jason noticed that a child was distressed. He swam over and calmed his friend, giving him a float and encouraging him to join in.
R St Margaret Clitherow	Alena Ejakpovi-Enjoyment -for showing such enjoyment during her swimming lessons.
1 St Augustine	Chikamara Okeke – Service – this week, Chikamara has really shown a caring attitude to others. When she has seen someone needs help, she has stepped in without being asked – well done Chikamara!
1 St Ursula	Curtis Igbo-Patience -for always showing patience with his friends and in his learning too.
2 St Thomas Becket	Eira Raduica— Patience – at first, Eira found it tricky to wait patiently for her turn during making Mother's Day cakes, but the next day she worked hard to show her patience when she decorated them. She even told us how well she was following our patience value.
2 St Cedd	Jewel Aseesh-Trustworthiness -Jewel can always be trusted to do the right thing. She is a great role model and an extremely diligent worker.
3 St Bede	Clementine Apuzzo- Resilience -Clementine has worked incredibly hard in class this half term, especially in her maths. Her confidence is always growing and she tries ,even when she finds it difficult. Well done Clementine, keep going!
3 St Swithun	Rachelle Fimin-Resilience -last week on 'World Book Day' Rachelle knew lots of answers to the quiz, and showed great resilience when looking for answers to questions she didn't know.
4 St Columba	Ava-Marie Mills – Empathy -Ava consistently shows kindness and thoughtfulness. She speaks to adults politely and checks in on how they're feeling. Ava is always ready to help her friends and make sure everyone is happy.
4 St Alban	Dominic Wroblewski -Enjoyment - for participating fully and enthusiastically at Indi Rock, for listening to advice and improving your climbing style and technique. You helped and encouraged others to do their best.
5 St Anne Line	George Cullen – Patience – He has shown great patience when working with his partner this week. He has been slow to anger and has been very helpful.
5 St Osyth	Sham Awadghanem-Resilience -Sham has shown great resilience over the last few weeks making great progress in her maths and literacy work, she has not been phased by new areas in her learning and has shown a resilient attitude, resolving problems and solving issues that have been testing her understanding.
6 St Sebbi	Eliana Machado- Service - for always being courteous and being there for others, supporting and encouraging. You are an excellent role model, Eliana!
6 St Boniface	Nuriyah Costa Odunuga-Enjoyment -for Nuriyah, who embodies so many of St Helen's values, but it is her enjoyment that she shows throughout the school day which shines the brightest. She is kind, works very hard on her targets and her artwork is out of this world! She always starts and ends the day with a beautiful smile on her face.
MDA award	Somkele Itoyah-R ST John Fisher-Service -for being kind to others.
MDA award	Jake Wilson-5 St Anne Line-Service -for being helpful to the MDA staff.
Inclusion Award	Lincoln Chowa-Empathy-2 St Cedd - Lincoln is the first person to comfort any child who is sad. This week a girl was upset in the first aid room, he showed kindness and then read a book to the girl and made her feel better. This is one example of many for Lincoln, who shows kindness and empathy often.
