Try drawing your very own snowflake. For ideas go to the YouTube video:

Why not try some snowflake salt painting?

Using your snowflake drawing as a stencil lay a piece of paper over your drawing.

Use runny glue to trace the snowflake.

Put a good amount of salt onto the glue, pouring the excess off. Let the glue and salt painting dry.

Mix a few tablespoons of water with food colouring. Gently drip the colouring onto the salt painted snowflakes with a medicine syringe. Watch how the coloured water is absorbed and moves through the pattern.
