

Topic: Imagine That

You must complete 5 of the homework options.
This project is to be handed in : Monday 17th October

In the story of Alice in Wonderland, there is an 'eat me cake' and a 'shrink me potion'.

- Create your own imaginary food and/ or drink which has a special ability.
- Design your food (describe it using the five senses) and create a recipe. You could even make it and bring it in for us to sample!

Create a board game based upon a book. For example, Beanstalks and Giants (a take on snakes and ladders). Include the rules and how to play your game.

You have just stepped through the wardrobe and have seen Narnia for the first time.

Use a shoebox to create your own imaginary place / setting. Write a short description / explanation of your land, including its name!

There are a huge amount of imaginary characters in children's books. Choose a character that you love, e.g. the Gruffalo, The Cat in the Hat etc.

Draw or make your character and write about it, explaining why you like it and what makes it a little different.

Create a collage of all things weird and wonderful which you find interesting and exciting, this can be pictures, things in nature etc. Anything inspiring, weird and wonderful!

In the story: 'The Tiger Who Came to Tea' , an unexpected guest arrived for tea.

Write an acrostic poem (or another poem of your choice) about an unexpected guest (from a book) arriving at your door and an adventure that you have with them.

Pick your favourite author and write a short fact file about them, explain why you have chosen this particular author.

Is there a song that inspires you? Learn the words of your song and perform it to class. If you are a budding star in the making , why don't you try writing your own song or rap. The only catch is that your song has to be interesting and imaginative.
